Connecting People with Opportunity

A Reputation of Success

Accounting Principals ("API") came to Richmond over a decade ago as a small company with a vision of providing highly qualified professionals to reputable companies. Over the years, our team has hired over 1,000 financial professionals for successful Richmond companies and employed over 1,000 consultants to assist with interim financial needs. Our success is directly related to an extensive network of contacts and many successful placements within the Richmond financial community.

Experts "In the Know"

With a team of well-networked financial and staffing professionals (CPAs, accountants and tenured industry consultants on staff), we are able to truly understand our client and candidate needs and provide consultative knowledge of the Richmond job market.

Making the Hiring Process Easier

"For the past several years, I've worked with Jen and her team at API to hire a number of professionals in the tax, accounting and finance areas. They have also assisted me in meeting my short term needs by providing qualified consultants and temporary staff. API understands my needs and the culture of our organization, making the hiring process easier."

"We've been involved in many hiring decisions within our businesses as well as through philanthropic organizations; this was one of the easiest processes we've experienced. Within days, API presented several candidates who were all qualified for our Controller role. The quality of the candidates was outstanding and the turnaround time was great. The candidate we selected through API has become a valued member of our team. We felt that API worked to find a win-win for all of us and always had both the candidate's and our best interests in mind."

Partnering to Build Financial Careers

"As a CPA with Fortune 500 experience, I was looking for something different. I joined API as a financial consultant. I found a great partnership, challenging work, flexibility and great compensation. When I decided to leave consulting, API was there to "hear me" and my "wish list." They listened, and identified a great career opportunity for me."

A Commitment to Integrity

We are firmly committed to finding the win-win for our clients and candidates. We are able to identify the best people for our clients while also creating the best opportunities for our candidates. We are committed to professionalism, integrity and confidentiality in all that we do.
