THE BOAR'S HEAD Charlottesville

Meetings...Boar's Head Style

Enhance attendance by booking your next meeting at The Boar's Head, a 573-acres estate centrally located in Charlottesville, Virginia: 2 hours from D.C., Tidewater and Roanoke; one hour from Richmond and Harrisonburg. The resort with its 175 newly renovated guestrooms offers an unparalleled setting for any occasion and provides a truly inspired venue for groups and associations to collaborate with enough activities and amenities to keep all your participants entertained.

Featuring 20,000 square feet of meeting and event space among 19 rooms including two ballrooms, The Boar's Head spaces were designed with meetings and conventions in mind. The property has the largest ballroom in Charlottesville and the surrounding area. The Pavilion's pre-function space is large enough to accommodate 20 exhibit tables and session space ideal for general assemblies and installation dinners. The staff will help plan and coordinate everything from unique break options to the most complex privacy/security details. No wonder The Boar's Head has received the Pinnacle Award in 2011, 2012, and was awarded VAMPI 2011- 2012 Host Facility of the Year.

At The Boar's Head business as usual is cooking classes held in the kitchen with the chefs, cardboard regattas on one of the lakes, or donating a day to build a Habitat House coordinated through our 16 year training partner, Organizational Wide Leadership Solutions, OWLS.

Savor AAA Four-Diamond dining in the Old Mill Room, cocktails on the Bistro 1834 patio, specialty smoothies at the Sports Club Café and extraordinary views at Birdwood Grill. In addition, the Old Mill Room is the only restaurant in Virginia to have retained the coveted Four-Diamond award for 25 consecutive years.

This Top 50 U.S. Tennis resort also offers balloon rides embarking from our front door, private wine tours and tastings. Spa services, golf and a sports and fitness center boasting 26 indoor and outdoor tennis courts are also available on site.

The Boar's Head is an ideal destination for extraordinary meetings at an incomparable value.
