

Hampton Conventions & Visitors Bureau

HAMPTON ROADS - PENINSULA

Hampton, Virginia – Innovative Meetings for 400 Years

Hampton, Va., has cornered the meetings market when it comes to convenience and accessibility. Geographically centered in picturesque Coastal Virginia, the state-of-the-art Hampton Roads Convention Center positions meeting attendees where opportunity abounds to explore and enjoy. Plus, Hampton is located in the middle of the Mid-Atlantic region and is within easy an drive of our nation's most populous metropolitan areas.

Delegates convening in Hampton, whether on the downtown waterfront or at the Hampton Roads Convention Center, are greeted by scenic waterfront vistas, exceptional facilities, world-class attractions and an eclectic array of shopping and dining.

Hampton Roads Convention Center

In 2015, the Hampton Roads Convention Center celebrates its 10th anniversary. There are 2,000 hotel rooms within immediate proximity of the 344,000-square-foot Hampton Roads Convention Center. Its 35 flexible meetings spaces under one roof include a 102,000-square-foot exhibit hall and a grand ballroom seating 2,000, plus dramatic features like an outdoor terrace overlooking the landscaped grounds. A covered walkway connects to a headquarters-quality Embassy Suites Hotel and the iconic 84,000-square-foot Hampton Coliseum arena shares the campus.

"Hampton Roads Convention Center offers a variety of hotels all within walking distance. When people are driving long distances or flying in, it's a real plus for them to be able to simply park the car and enjoy the destination." — Kirk McNeill, VA Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

Unique Venues & Attractions

Hampton features other unique venues that set a dynamic stage for off-site celebrations. The downtown Hampton waterfront provides a vibrant setting, regardless of the hour. Moat-encircled Fort Monroe National Monument, the largest stone fort ever built in the U.S., is a dramatic site for outdoor receptions and teambuilding exercises. Groups can also enjoy guided tours of the more than 100 "hands-on" exhibits as well as meal functions under hanging air and spacecraft at the Virginia Air & Space Center, the NASA Langley Visitor Center. Other attractions include Hampton University Museum, the oldest African-American museum in the U.S., and harbor cruises on the Miss Hampton II.

Dining & Nightlife

Peninsula Town Center and Power Plant of Hampton Roads offer groups abundant dining and nightlife options. International fare is presented at restaurants Monsoon, Abuelos, Hayashi and Park Lane Tavern. Hip new establishments in Downtown Hampton and Fort Monroe appeal to young professionals. Trendy eateries like Venture Kitchen and Conch & Bucket draw crowds and host innovative special events, while established favorites like Oyster Alley continue to draw crowds year-round.

To plan your next meeting in the heart of Coastal Virginia, contact Michelle Hergenrother by email at michelle@hamptoncvb.com or by phone at 757.728.5337.

THE PERFECT SETTING FOR ALL OCCASIONS.

Hampton
VIRGINIA

For over 400 years, people have gathered in Hampton. Today, our city hosts everything from business meetings to sporting competitions. For a location as unique as your event, choose Hampton, VA. 800.487.8778 VisitHampton.com

THE PERFECT SETTING FOR ALL OCCASIONS.

HAMPTON ROADS CONVENTION CENTER

HAMPTON ROADS
Convention Center

For over 400 years, people have gathered in Hampton. Today, business meetings, social gatherings, trade expositions and sporting competitions all take place under one roof. For a location as unique as your event, choose Hampton, VA. 800.487.8778 thehrc.com