Suffolk: The Gateway to Coastal Virginia

Meet in Suffolk

One of the fastest-growing cities in Virginia, Suffolk is known for its small-town charm, revitalized downtown historic district, high-tech corridor, and friendly Southern hospitality. Rated one of "America's Top 100 Best Small Cities" by CNN Money magazine, it's no surprise that Suffolk is a top pick for a conference or meeting venue.

From spacious conference facilities of more than 14,000 square feet for large groups, to "off the beaten path" accommodations for that small meeting of 20 guests, Suffolk venues are equipped with the most recent innovations in audio/visual technology for any type of presentation or event. Historic homes, upscale restaurants and traditional conference facilities with full amenities are all part of the mix and ensure that any conference or meeting will be memorable.

Dedicated professionals at the Suffolk Division of Tourism are able to help with location selection, guided tours, customized welcome packets, save the date cards, information tables, dine-arounds and more to ensure that no detail is overlooked. Expect to receive extraordinary service, and assurance that your event will be well planned and stress-free.

Something for Everyone

Home to Planters Peanuts and the birthplace of the iconic Mr. Peanut®, Suffolk boasts an array of activities and attractions. The 112,000-acre Great Dismal Swamp National Wildlife Refuge is a favorite for eco-tourism, guided tours, nature trails and bird-watching. The up and coming arts and culture scene has developed into the perfect blend of local, regional and national artisans through visual arts, theatre, dance, music and more. With five golf courses, boating, fishing and kayaking, not to mention historic sites, guided historic tours, boutique shopping along side of national retail brands, relaxing spas and unique eateries, Suffolk truly does offer something for everyone. Did we mention, we also offer skydiving?

Conveniently situated as the "Gateway to Coastal Virginia," Suffolk is within easy driving distance of beaches and historic Virginia treasures, adding value to any meeting. Contact the friendly and accommodating staff at Suffolk Division of Tourism today and let them help with planning all the details for your event.
