We're here to make your meetings matter

Chesapeake has the perfect blend of urban and rural settings, and that's just one reason Money magazine ranked the city as one of the country's top 100 best places to live in 2010. But it's not just the residents that benefit from the inimitable quality of life; Chesapeake's winning combination of accommodations, meeting venues, attractions and outdoor activities provides plenty of options for any agenda, making it a desirable meeting destination.

award-winning food and beverage service, and customizable floor plans, the Chesapeake Conference Center is flexible enough to handle a range of meetings. As a Virginia Green Certified meeting facility, the Chesapeake Conference Center also offers free parking and is located near a variety of hotels, and shopping and dining options.

Situated in the heart of Coastal Virginia, Chesapeake is conveniently located in the mid-Atlantic region within 750 miles of two-thirds of the U.S. population. Getting your group here — no matter the size — is easy with nearby Norfolk International Airport offering connections by air and major interstate highways providing access by automobile.

With hotels ranging from traditional to trendy, you can tailor your group's surroundings based on taste and budget. You can host meetings in convenient hotel conference facilities, unique outdoor venues or the Chesapeake Conference Center. With 22,700 square feet of meeting space,

The Chesapeake Marriott hotel is adjacent to the Chesapeake Conference Center, and both facilities combine to form the Chesapeake Meetings Campus.
