Norfolk

Norfolk, the heart of the Virginia Waterfront

Norfolk's mid-Atlantic waterfront location is a snap to reach with a variety of hotels and venues, making it an ideal location for your next meeting.

Collectively, hotels in Norfolk provide 5,000 rooms for visitors, many of which are located within walking distance of the city's downtown meeting venues, shops, restaurants, attractions and nightlife options. The city offers a variety of meeting spaces complete with the latest in modern audio-visual equipment.

Norfolk's famed cultural centers, historic theaters, museums, and other attractions are ideal offsite venues.

When the meeting is over, enjoy our walkable city filled with chef-owned restaurants, attractions, historical landmarks, trendy neighborhoods and local breweries. With 144 miles of shoreline, no matter where you are in Norfolk, you are never far from the water!

Speaking of water, it's hard to find another city that offers both the excitement of a downtown and water and outdoor activities – you can learn to sail, kayak or golf only minutes from downtown! Tours of the Elizabeth River harbor & Norfolk Naval Station are available and nearly 100 festivals take place annually along the waterfront at the beautiful Town Point Park!

Norfolk boasts Virginia's very first urban winery and Virginia's first light rail system. The city has a very unique art scene, the newest addition being the Norfolk Arts District. Norfolk's Granby Street, also known as "restaurant row," and the historic Ghent neighborhood are teeming with talented chefs and ambitious restaurateurs. The city offers a repertoire, including vegan fare, highly lauded seafood selection and culinary offerings from around the world. Sign up for one of Norfolk's fabulous culinary or pub tours!

A quick three-hour drive from Washington D.C., Norfolk is easy to get to by car from most cities and boasts an international airport. New to Norfolk is passenger rail service! For more information, go to www.visitnorfolktoday.com.
