Wytheville Meeting Center
*WythevilleExceeding expectations

Southwest Virginia mountain views are gorgeous any time of year, and your meeting or event can enjoy a room with a view at the Wytheville Meeting Center. Comfortable, sophisticated, and technology-friendly describes Southwest Virginia's most popular conference facility. You can expect only the highest level of customer service because Exceeding Expectations is the facility's philosophy.

From the Evansham Ballroom seating 1,200 theater style or 500 for banquets to several smaller meeting rooms, the Wytheville Meeting Center is an ideal location for regional, state, or multi-state conferences and events. Each room is equipped with an overhead projector, screen, and sound system, as well as having the technology for voice and video conferencing. Experienced and accommodating caterers are available to handle your dining needs for breakfast, lunch, dinner, or receptions.

Conveniently located at the intersection of major north-south arteries, Interstates 77 and 81, Wytheville has a variety of authentic attractions for your meeting attendees to enjoy before, during, or after your event.

From an abundance of outdoor recreation to numerous music and arts venues, there are many reasons for your attendees to continue their Wytheville experience once the meeting is over.

There are over 1,700 sleeping rooms within one mile of the facility including a restored boutique hotel and a luxurious bed & breakfast located in the historic district. Dozens of unique attractions are nearby, including museums, historic mansions, a dinner theatre, an herb farm, wineries, an animal park and an Indian village. Annual festivals, live music performances, and various area events give visitors a glimpse of the region's distinctive culture.

Revitalized Downtown Wytheville offers specialty shopping, great restaurants, and entertainment options. The area is home to the New River Trail State Park, Crystal Springs Recreation Area, and Jefferson National Forest, offering hiking and biking trails as well as fishing and other water-related activities.

With endless possibilities in Wytheville...no wonder there's only one!
